

THE INSTITUTION OF ENGINEERS (INDIA), IE(I)

The Institution of Engineers (India), IE(I) is the Professional Body of Engineers' founded in India and incorporated by the Royal Charter in 1935. From a humble beginning in 1920, today it is a multi-disciplinary nation-wide association having the largest body of its kind in the whole of Asia with multinational status and bilateral relations with many sister associations round the world. It is currently headquartered in Kolkata and this Institution functions amongst the Engineers', academicians and research workers and provides a vast array of technical, professional and support services to the Government, Industries, Academic and the Engineering community.