Debate is an argument/discussion of a topic between a group of individuals to support or oppose the argument and put it forward then concluded with a vote. It is a competitive event conducted in CEA hour by the student body and the faculty, to bring together all the peer students from the Department. The debate was about ‘Conclusion For How India Fared During Covid-19 In Comparison To Other Countries’. The number of participants show cased enthusiasm towards the event and the active participation of the Affirmatives (Supporter of the argument) and the Negatives(Against to the argument) made the event more emanate. The debate was satisfactory, both the supporters and the opposers stated their opinions, argued and concluded the vote of the debate. Most of them voted positively i. e, right decisions are taken on right time. Whereas few participants stated the drawbacks of the Covid-19 Lock down besides success in the Battle of Life.

QUESCUSSION is an interesting activity, a combination of questions and discussions. It is also an effective act of making a student or an individual to participate in an activity, to let themselves learn and discuss regarding the given topic/title. The topic given to the participants was “Social Media Influencers – Impact on Youth”. The participants were asked to discuss the topic by questioning the remaining individuals on how the social media influencing the youth in various aspects such as business, fashion, entertainment, food, photography, leadership, literature, education, social issues- politics, beauty etc. and the effect, either the influence encouraging them to do something useful or rubbing off of the ill-discipline and perplexity in living or both. Most of the generation today being naive, has been wasting time and being numb they are antagonizing their purpose of life. While the other remaining percentage has been making their life a purpose. The participants came up with good examples of few of the influencers. They brought up the positivity and negativity context of the social media and its influence on the generations. The session was enthusiastic and optimistic. The energy of the participants and their activity to portray their questioning and discussing them with the audience was immense, it was very much alive and good.
