

Examination Malpractice is illegal

As a KITSW student you will have to conduct yourself with honor and integrity at all times. Upon accepting admission to KITSW, a student immediately assumes a commitment to uphold the dignity of Institute, to accept responsibility for learning, and to follow the philosophy, vision and Mission of the Institute. Students will be required to show their commitment on examinations, research papers, and other academic work. Examination malpractice is illegal. Ignorance of the rules does not exclude any member of the KITSW community from disciplinary action.

For additional information please visit:

www.kitsw.ac.in/examinations/rules.pdf

Any malpractice or any improper conduct of student during any exam will result in disqualifying all papers of the ongoing examinations. Improper conduct includes: Oral communication between candidates, possessing forbidden material, exchange of exam assisting material (like pen, pencil, eraser, calculator, etc.) and mobile phones.