Dear Senior Students!

It has come to the notice of the administration that some of the senior students are entering the first classes and demanding amounts for organizing FRESHERS' PARTY, which is an act of RAGGING.

In spite of several instructions and counseling, you are not valuing the instructions of the administration. IT IS A MATTER OF COMMON SENSE. YOU ARE GOING AGAINST OUR OBJECTIVE OF MAKING KITSW A RAGGING-FREE ZONE.

Dear Senior Students!

As a honourable students of KITSW, you have submitted an undertaking, vide ref (10) cited, stating that you would not indulge in any activity that leads to ragging and also uphold the dignity of our institute.

In this connection, all senior students are advised to SERIOUSLY WORK ON THEIR ACADEMICS AND NOT TO DIVERT THEIR ATTENTION TO MINDLESS ACTIVITIES OF RAGGING. YOU ARE NOT IN KITSW FOR RAGGING. MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS.

All the senior students are hereby instructed

- not to enter the first year classes
- not to collect amounts from first years for organizing any activity either in the campus or outside the campus.
- If found, suitable action will be initiated
- As per the RAGGING act, if any student is involved in ragging,
 - he may be initially suspended from the institution and liable to dismissal
 - Under the act, there are 10 sections and Sec. 4 of the Act vide ref (1) cited. the accused will get 2 year to 7 year Jail and cannot pursue the course thereafter

Let's uphold KITSW as a temple of learning

Hence, all the senior students are strictly instructed not to spoil the institute reputation by indulging in mindless activities of ragging.
