On the eve of 31st National Road Safety Week, a seminar on 'Traffic Awareness' is organized on January 9, 2020 for the students at our institute. This event is organized to let the students get familiarized with the safety measures to be followed to avoid accidents. The major agenda in the event was the increasing number of accidents and the role of youth to prevent them. It was intended to present few remedies to the above-mentioned causes and to discuss how drunk and drive is becoming a major problem among the adults. The event was presided by Dr. K. Ashoka Reddy, Principal of the college. Sri G. Balaswamy, Assistant Commissioner of Police, Traffic, Hanamkonda acted as Chief Guest of the function. Sri Md. Hasan, Inspector, Traffic, Hanamkonda acted as Guest of Honor. Prof. G. Raghotham Reddy, Dean, Student Affairs and Prof. M. Veera Reddy, Head of the Department, Civil Engineering graced the occasion. He also focused on the accidents related to drunk and drive. He also requested the girl students to dial '100' in case of emergency for help. Issues related to triple riding, over speeding, signal jumping, birthday celebrations on roads are addressed. The guests in the event suggested that the youth should be away from any such cases that would affect the harmony of the society and bring awareness among the people.

To bridge the gap between the juniors and senior students and to create a healthy atmosphere among them in the institute, the Disciplinary Club has initiated a unique event named 'SOCIALIZATION'. As part of the event, every first year student is supposed to find their direct seniors (from II,III,IV years) and has to take a selfie (photograph) in the presence of counsellor and post the picture in an Instagram page which will be maintained by the Disciplinary club. This event aimed at strengthening the bond between juniors and seniors and further helps the junior students for efficient planning of their academics and career. The proposed event has been organized in the second week of February. Overwhelming response has been received from the students of I year. Our Instagram page has been filled with lovely photographs of the students along with their counselors. Most of the faculty have entertained the students in taking wonderful pictures of their counselors and let them post on the social media. The event lasted from February 10, 2020 to February 20, 2020.

A two day National Cultural Festival SANSKRITI-19 was organized by the Cultural Club of the Student Activity Centre(SAC), in association with the other clubs, during 28.02.2020 - 29.02.2020.
