Literary & Extramural Club

Sri. S. Ramesh
Asst. Professor, MED

Faculty I/c Literary & Extramural Club
Student Activity Center

Vision:

Our vision is to create a welcoming and inclusive space where diversity is celebrated, ideas are exchanged, and collective growth is fostered. Ultimately, we envision the Literary Club as a catalyst for personal and societal transformation, inspiring members to embrace lifelong learning, pursue excellence, and make a positive impact in the world.

Mission:

The Literary Club is on a committed mission to amplify all the thought provoking voices of students and to help them realize their ideas. The club offers a publishing platform, to grandly establish the identity of the students by offering sunlight and water to the plant that is their literary potential and combining it with their unique and valuable social outlook to accomplish a highly extraordinary and meaningful effort. The variety offered by the club helps the students grow in many aspects of their lives.

Objectives / Functions:

The Literary and Extramural Club aims to develop the soft skills, interpersonal skills, and communication skills of students through various literary and extramural activities. By providing opportunities for students to express themselves creatively, engage in group discussions, debates, and public speaking, and receive training, the club equips students with the skills they need to succeed in both personal and professional contexts. The club also plays a vital role in promoting the talents and abilities of students and showcasing the activities of the institute to the outside world.

Best Practice:

The Literary Club implements a range of best practices to foster a vibrant literary culture within the school community. Emphasizing creative expression, critical thinking, and collaboration, the club provides opportunities for members to explore various literary forms and engage in discussions and group projects. Leadership development is encouraged through roles in event coordination and editorial tasks, while participation in literary events and community outreach programs enhances communication skills and promotes social responsibility. A welcoming and inclusive environment is maintained to foster a sense of identity and belonging, with members actively contributing to institutional beautification efforts through literary-themed projects. Through these practices, the club provides a nurturing and empowering space for students to explore their literary interests and make meaningful contributions to the school community.

Outcomes:

Participation in the Literary and Extramural Club nurtures individuals into confident, articulate, and socially aware members who embrace creativity, critical thinking, and effective communication skills. Through their engagement, participants foster a strong sense of identity and belonging, alongside a deep passion for literature and the arts. They acquire valuable leadership experience by organizing events and assuming editorial roles, while also refining teamwork and collaboration abilities. Moreover, involvement in literary pursuits fosters social responsibility and empathy, as members leverage their talents to address pertinent issues and positively impact society. Ultimately, the Literary and Extramural Club cultivates well-rounded individuals who appreciate literature's power, exhibit robust character traits, and are poised to contribute meaningfully to their communities.
